

MEDICARE PART D FAST FACTS: FLORIDA 2009

MEDICARE BENEFICIARIES IN FLORIDA

- 3,151,715 Medicare beneficiaries.¹
- 2,712,095 Medicare Part D enrollees.¹
- 298,101 Dual Eligibles (Medicare beneficiaries who also receive Medi-Cal).¹
- 588,556 Low Income Subsidy recipients (including Dual Eligibles).¹
- 95,145 Medicare beneficiaries with no drug coverage who could be eligible for the Low Income Subsidy.²

CHANGES TO FULL SUBSIDY PLANS FROM 2008

- 7 of the 8 plans available to low-income beneficiaries for no monthly premium in 2008 will not be available for no monthly premium in 2009.³
- Over 115,000 low income beneficiaries will have to change plans to maintain a $0 premium.⁴
 - Approximately 83,000 will be reassigned to a new plan by CMS.⁴
 - Approximately 32,000 will have to switch plans on their own to avoid a premium in 2009.⁴

FULL SUBSIDY PLANS IN 2009

- 5 plans available to low-income beneficiaries for no monthly premium in 2009.³

2009 PLAN OFFERINGS

- In 2008, the least expensive plan in Florida cost $12.10 (Health Net Orange Option 1). In 2009 that plan's premium will rise to $29.70 – a 145% increase.³
- In 2009, the least expensive plan in Florida (First Health Part D-Secure) will cost $16.70 – more than 35% more expensive than 2008's least expensive plan.³

¹ "2008 PDP Enrollment Information" available at: www.cms.hhs.gov/PrescriptionDrugCovGenIn.

² "Low Income Subsidy 2008 Targeting Estimates" available at: www.cms.hhs.gov/Partnerships/Toolkits/itemdetail.asp?itemID=CMS1188820.

³ Comparison of "2009 PDP Landscape Source" and "2008 PDP Landscape Source." Source data available at: www.cms.hhs.gov/PrescriptionDrugCovGenIn.

⁴ Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services, "Year 2008 Re-Assignment Data – Premium Increases," "Year 2008 Re-Assignment Data – Terminating Plans," and "Year 2008 Chooser Data," November 2008. www.cms.hhs.gov/limitedincomeandresources/.