OTHER SOURCES OF INFORMATION ABOUT THE IHSS AND MEDI-CAL PERSONAL CARE SERVICES PROGRAMS

- Disability Rights California (formerly Protection & Advocacy or PAI). A wealth of information about IHSS. http://www.disabilityrightsca.org/issues/inhome_pubs.html
 - “IHSS Fair Hearing and Self-Assessment Packet,” a very valuable tool to work through with clients.
 - “In-Home Supportive Services: Nuts and Bolts,” (Sept. 2008). A good guide for advocates, available in Spanish, Vietnamese and Chinese.
 - “Request for Information: Documenting a Patient’s Functional Limitation”—a model to send to doctors.
 - Protective Supervision Packet—not currently online, contact Disability Rights.
- “The Caregiver Companion: A User-Friendly Guide to Providing At-Home Care,” Bet Tzedek (2007). Intended for family caregivers, this guide gives a good overview of other services that may be available to provide at-home assistance (e.g., Adult Day Care), and discusses other important issues for those with a family member in need of at-home care (e.g., how to find a care provider).
